From Where We Sit

By ED VELARDE

Thoughts at random: For once in many moons loyal students of the college have come to the rescue of the cry for "college spirit". I'm referring to the 27 who comprise the band . . . orchids to them. . . yeah, but the sour note about it (not the band) is that the yells are so bad they can't even drown out a good first class band such as that of which we can now boast. . .

More thoughts: While on the subject of bands, the "swing fever" ought to be contracted by the local musicians . . . with just about every college in the country swinging their bands (not literally), the Dons ought to step into line . . . What say, folks? . . .

Last year El Don campaigned for a new water wagon for the football team . . . Last issue we urged the purchase of one for the boys in red. . . Now the thing is, do the boys really want one? . . .

If the football squad thinks its worth the money and trouble to purchase one, it is our suggestion that a small, handy wagon be secured . . . A big bulky one is out of the question . . . Travel would make it difficult to carry, but a small one would be just right. . . what do you think? . . .

It was with sincere regret that we learned of the sickness of Mrs. Violet Bartholomew, office secretary. She has always done everything she could to assist students. And the students think the same of her as witnessed by the monetary gift allotted her to help defray hospital expenses. . . It was a swell gesture!

134 Are Employed On NYA Program

One hundred and thirty-four students are employed by the National Youth administration this year, a survey revealed today. Of these, 94 are men and 40 are women students.

Among the many types of work performed by the students are clerical, building maintenance, maintenance of the grounds, art, and departmental service, which includes any work necessary in the different departments.

Football Fans Urged To Use Club Lot

Donn Hart, president of Beta Gamma, extra-curricular honor society, urged that all students attending the football game tonight use the jaysee parking lot near the Municipal bowl. Beta Gamma has control of the enterprise for this year.

CONTRAST IN CIVIC PRIDE!

So, new buildings for the junior college would constantly add to the tax burden of the workers, lower their standard of living and do mighty little, if any, good.—Santa Ana Register, Sept. 12.

After a thorough study trying to weigh the objections to bond issues, with the benefits to be derived from the two projects, we arrived at the decision that the benefits far outweigh the objections. With the gift from PWA funds—and it will be an out and out GIFT of forty-five per cent—we believe Burbank voters cannot afford to turn down the bonds. In our opinion this is not just another bond election, it is a vote for the further growth and development of Burbank.—Burbank Daily Review, Sept. 22.

(Editor's note: The Burbank school bonds were passed last week by an overwhelming majority vote.)

Annual Fall Picnic Set For Tuesday

Sophomore Wins In National Japanese Oratorical Tourney

Isamu Masuda, local sophomore honor student, continued to receive congratulations today from a host of friends for honors bestowed upon him recently by the National Japanese-American Citizens' league.

One of five contestants to compete in the oratorical contest sponsored by the league at its fifth bi-annual convention in Los Angeles, Masuda won first honors and an award consisting of a gold medal and a gold cup. The trophies are on exhibition in the window of the First National bank in Garden Grove. Masuda lives in Garden Grove, where he graduated from high school several years ago.

WINS OTHER AWARDS

In addition to his speech honors, Masuda also received a recent cash award amounting to $100 from the Central Japanese Association of Southern California. The award was presented in view of his outstanding scholarship record.

While in high school Masuda won the annual Toastmasters' oratorical contest in the Southern California finals. He was also winner several years ago of the Southern California Japanese Farm oratorical contest.

OUTSTANDING SCHOLAR

Last year Masuda was one of the outstanding scholars on the jaysee campus, securing 48 grade points during the second semester. He is a member of the college debate team.

Engineers To Hold Club Exhibition

For all engineering students who are interested in joining the American Association of Engineers, a meeting will be held next Wednesday evening in the physics laboratory in College hall, it was announced today by Keith Tantlinger, club president.

All students taking at least nine units of engineering work and who have satisfactory grades from high school may attend, it was stated. Various exhibits will be presented at the meeting.

Officers for the coming year include Tantlinger, president; Ted Rischard, vice-president; Thompson McNeil, secretary; Warren Hall, treasurer; and Harold Tucker, publicity. H. O. Russell is the adviser.

Six Students On Debate Squad

Two returning veteran debaters and four new students comprise the local forensic squad that is preparing for the conference debate season, it was disclosed today.

Ernest Barrett and Isamu Masuda are the returning students, both having represented jaysee in various speech contests last year. James Trauter, Edward Budd, Gilman Brookings, and Frank Washburn are the newcomers trying out for the Don team.

Best Grid Pickers Offered Award

Do you like football? And do you like to eat?

Of course you do, and students and faculty will be given an opportunity to enjoy both. Beginning with this issue, El Don is sponsoring a football guessing contest in conjunction with Phil Hay of the Salad Bowl.

PICK WINNERS

All that entrants have to do is to pick the winning football teams from a list which will be printed in El Don each week. The person selecting the most winners will receive a $1 merchandise order for the Salad Bowl.

Here are the simple rules: (1) Any junior college student or faculty member is eligible to enter, excepting El Don's editorial staff. (2) Check the team which you think will win from the list printed each week. Do not put in scores. (3) Deadline for entries is 4 p. m. today.

DUPLICATE PRIZES

Persons may submit an entry every week, and duplicate prizes will be awarded in case of ties. After checking the list, sign your name, clip out the list, and put in El Don's box in the college office by 4 o'clock each Friday.

Failure to observe these simple rules will disqualify any entrant. (Continued on page 3)

Dramatic Cantata Chosen By Class

Tryouts for Gilbert and Sullivan's dramatic cantata "Trial By Jury" will begin next week Miss Myrtle A. Martin, head of the music department announced today.

The books were received this week, and students may learn the songs for tryouts, she said.

Miss Martin also announced that the men's octet has been chosen and the Girls' Treble clef will be chosen next week.

Members of the men's octet are Horace Evans, Vernon, Worden, Bruce Buell, Lyle Anderson, Ed Velarde, Stanley Sebastian, Harold Kern and Leslie Damewood.

Reveal $100 Gift For Secretary

Mrs. Violet Bartholomew, office secretary, has been presented with a gift fund of $100 by the Associated Students and local instructors, Director D. K. Hammond revealed today. The fund was raised to help defray expenses during her period of convalescence. Miss Bartholomew is at the Santa Ana Valley hospital recovering from an appendectomy.

Picture Supplement Is Issued By El Don

With today's issue of El Don, distribution of Collegiate Digest, rotogravure section, gets under way for the current semester. Interesting pictures of many different colleges and college events will be included in the section which will be distributed each week, Editor Ed Velarde announced today.

SPEAKS FOR AWARD

ISAMU MASUDA, sophomore student, who received high honors after participating in an oratorical contest sponsored by the National Japanese-American Citizens' league. He won first honors and received a gold medal and cup.

Late News Bulletins

MAY HOLD ANOTHER JC BOND ELECTION

Indications of another junior college bond issue seemed probable today with circulation of petitions asking the board of education to hold another election.

Although the board has indicated that it will not take action until word is received from the WPA regional office in San Francisco, members of the citizens' committee has sent out cards to friends of the college asking whether or not they desire another election.

According to George R. Wells, president of the board, future action will be determined by advice of the WPA office.

Only 4 Nominated For Offices By Local College Freshmen

BULLETIN

Five additional candidates had been nominated for freshmen class offices today. They include Dick Horton, president; Tom Engleman and Ralph Pagenkopp, vice-presidents; and Jack Clark and Louis Markel, treasurer.

A none too enthusiastic freshman class has nominated but four students to run in the primary election for four class offices next Wednesday. These figures were on the basis of the number of nominating petitions taken out up until the middle of the week.

Offices to be filled include president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer. Jack Lentz, Associated Student vice-president in charge of elections, today urged all freshmen to take out petitions for candidates, and have them correctly signed before noon Monday.

The primary will be held next Wednesday, with finals scheduled for Friday. Those nominated for offices include Don Borden and Marvin Jacobs for president; Harold Harvey for vice-president; and Dick Corn, secretary.

Monday Deadline On Free Ducats

Monday afternoon has been set as the deadline for obtaining free tickets for the annual fall picnic, to be held Tuesday at Irvine park, Miss Phyllis Kogler, social commissioner announced today.

Those who do not obtain tickets at the student office will be charged 25 cents at the park, Miss Kogler said.

Events planned for the non-date affair which begins at 3:30 include inter-club baseball games, and boat races.

Following dinner at 5:30, dancing in the pavillion will begin, and continue until 10:30.

Sport clothes are in order for the picnic. Students are requested to bring their own silverware, Miss Kogler added.

Richardson Heads Yearbook Staff

Carroll Richardson was today appointed editor of Del Ano, college yearbook, succeeding Jack Gardner, editor last year.

Partial selection of Richardson's staff includes the following:

Betty Frye, general editor; Tom Powell, faculty editor; Clara Westermann, sophomore editor; Audrey Barnes and Aloen Miller, departmental editor and activities; Marjorie Vollmer, organizations editor; Morris Cohen, men's sports editor; Ruth Lehnhardt, women's sports; Jo Butler, art editor; Margie Lee Brown and Leigh Berk-lund, layout editors.

Business managers and photographers have not as yet been appointed.

Will Secure Uniforms For Jaysee Band

Members of the jaysee band will be in uniforms at the next home game, Oct. 21, Director D. K. Hammond revealed today.

The uniforms will consist of white sweaters trimmed in red, and caps in the college colors, red and black.

"Band uniforms had been included in the budget," Director Hammond stated, "but we wanted to be sure we had a real band before we ordered them."

Music Club Will Hold Auditions Next Friday

An organization meeting of Sigma Phi Sigma, honorary jaysee music society, will be held next Friday, Miss Myrtle A. Martin, adviser of the club, announced today. The meeting will be a series of auditions for those who have received invitations to join the society.

The home of Alan A. Revell in Balboa Island will be the scene of the club's formal initiation on Wednesday, Oct. 19, Miss Martin disclosed.

The constitution limits membership to 30 students, and specifies that each member must be an outstanding vocal or instrumental soloist. Meetings are held once a month in the nature of a private formal concert.

Nine returning members of last year's organization will form the nucleus of the society for this year.

Two Clubs Give Plans For Future

Plans for the future relating to rush parties and final initiation dates were today announced by two clubs. The prospective programs for other jaysee service clubs have not yet been revealed.

LAS GITANAS

Fifty-five girls will be entertained by Las Gitanas at a rush tea tomorrow afternoon, from 3 to 5:30 p. m. at the home of Jayne Nalle, 814 South Birch street, it was today stated by Gertrude Yount, club president.

Florence Nelson, 2211 Orange avenue, will be hostess at the regular meeting Monday evening, when plans for the acceptance party to be held next Thursday will be made. The initiation party which follows is also to be discussed.

MOAVS

Next Thursday has been set as the date for their formal initiation by members of the Moav service club, President Margie Brown said today.

The game of Chinese checkers provided entertainment at the rush party held this week at the home of Marjory Flower.

MUSIC CLUB ADVISER

MISS MYRTLE A. MARTIN, head of the jaysee music department and adviser of Sigma Phi Sigma, honorary music society, who will be occupied this semester in directing the activities of the music society, which is planning an initiation for new members on Wednesday, Oct. 19. Miss Martin has also the major interest in the jaysee operetta to be presented later this year.

WAA Party To Have Hallowe'en Theme

With Hallowe'en as the theme, the motive behind the first party of the Women's Athletic association, to be held Oct. 19, will be to better acquaint the freshmen and sophomore women, Peggy Paxton, president of the group, stated today.

Helping with the plans for the forthcoming party are Maxine Knight, Ruth Lehnhardt, Juanita Stanfield, Lorraine Sweet, Roberta Shaffer, Margie Brown, and Mary Ann Low.

Annual Fall Picnic Set For Oct. 11

One of the biggest social events of the fall season, the annual Associated Students Fall picnic, is scheduled for Tuesday, Oct. 11, Phyllis Kogler, social commissioner, announced this week.

The Fall picnic, a gala all-student get-together, tentatively set for Wednesday, Oct. 6, had to be moved ahead because of conflicting arrangements for the use of Irvine park, where it is to be held. Attendance last year of over 400, and the unusual amount of interest expressed this year indicate one of the largest turn-outs the event has ever witnessed.

Beautiful Hose For the College Social Season

There are rush parties, teas, and formals that call for just the right sort of dress. Holeproof and Munsingwear offer an assortment of beautiful, sheer hose for every occasion. From the daintiest two thread hose for the most formal occasion to the more serviceable four thread for school wear, Holeproof and Munsingwear will please you completely. ## Football Fashions

By RUTH LIGGETT

I went scouting the other evening at the Don football game for the most outstanding outfits among the feminine junior college enthusiasts. A lot of touchdowns in dress were made by our local coeds as well as on the opposing side.

The complete lineup follows, giving you the two best dressed girls on each side:

SANTA ANA—Phyllis Kogler: A clever three-piece outfit in black crepe. The skirt was tailored, with a white pin stripe running through it. Blouse, plain with zipper down front. Jacket, with large lapels and short sleeves. Chic black hat, with rolled brim and large veil. Other accessories matching, in black.

LOS ANGELES—Gerry Fitzpatrick: Blue tweed tailored jacket with Cadet blue skirt, designed on simple lines. No hat. Accessories matching, in blue.

SANTA ANA—Ellen Neal: Tailored green herring-bone jacket. Green collegiate hat. Black pleated skirt and matching sweater. Other accessories in black.

LOS ANGELES—Lydia Rodak: Black silk dress with white cord the length of the dress, giving a gored effect. Matching bolero jacket, also with white cord trim. Accessories black.

Fullerton Delegates Visit Local Club

Twenty members of the newly formed Newman club were hosts to four representatives from the Fullerton jaysee chapter of the national organization here this week.

The visitors met on Monday evening with the new Santa Ana chapter of the Catholic fraternal club, under the chairmanship of Harry Ashen, to aid in drafting plans for the organization here.

The Monday meeting was the first gathering of the recently-organized club. Plans for the future include regular meetings to be held twice monthly, every other Wednesday.

At the next meeting to be held Wednesday, Oct. 12, at 7:30 p. m. in the Women's Lounge, the constitution of the club, drafted this week, will be approved and election of officers held.

Schweigert Named Head In German Club Vote

Fritz Schweigert, newly-elected president of the German club, was today completing plans for the next club meeting to be held Friday afternoon, Oct. 14.

The meeting will be held at the home of the club adviser, Miss Lella Watson, 1840 West Eighth street. An interesting program of German games and songs is being planned.

The first meeting of the year was held last week in the Women's lounge. Officers then elected are as follows: Fritz Schweigert, president; Harold Livingston, vice-president; Dorothea Schroeder, secretary; Bruce Buell, song leader; and Betty Frye, reporter.

AGS To Nominate New Officers At Supper

Because a majority of Alpha Gamma Sigma members did not attend the first meeting of the society held this week, election of officers will be postponed until next Thursday, today announced Miss Lella Watson, club adviser.

The meeting is to be in the form of a pot-luck dinner in the Women's lounge at 5:30 o'clock.

Committee members appointed at this week's meeting include: supper, Josephine Butler, and Margery Button; nominations, Alma Mae Hiatt and Clara Westerman.

Returning students who gained membership in the honor society on the basis of their last semester grades are the following:

Herschel Albrecht, Ernest Barrett, Marjorie Lee Brown, Josephine Butler, Morris Cohen, Betty Frye, Eileen Gibbs, Marjorie Gommel, Warren Hall, Alma Mae Hiatt, Elza Mae Hoxie;

Harry Incho, Phyllis Kogler, Paul Martin, Isamu Masuda, Wayne Maxey, Mary Mulhall, Bette Ann Munson, Betty Neff, Carroll Richardson, Ruth Sato, Irene Simon, Velma Sise, Juanita Stanfield, Fred Stearns, Marjorie Vollmer, Margery Button;

French Club Headed By Miss Hammond

Betty Hammond was elected president of the French club at the first meeting of the semester which was held this week. Other officers elected at that time are Herschel Albrecht, vice-president; Isa Grace Young, secretary; and James Dunseth, reporter.

The new officers were chosen following a program that included an account of her recent European travels by Miss Hammond. The talk was delivered in French.

A definite schedule for the forthcoming meetings of the or-

CAME THE DON

By BETTY FRYE

Announcement of the marriage of Margaret Abel, ex-jaysee student, and Marvin Stutheit of Orange is of interest to students who attended college last semester.

The marriage has been set for Tuesday, Oct. 25. The bride-to-be was in jaysee only a short time, taking a secretarial course. She was past Honor Queen of Job's Daughters. Stutheit is a graduate of Orange high school, and is connected with the Excelsior Creamery company.

Getting a bit personal, I defy anyone to select a composite Ideal Person . . . unless he includes at least some of the following qualities:

Hair—smooth and honey-colored as Gertrude Yount's; dark eyes like Cecelia Telef's; Jo Butler's friendliness; Rachel Skundberg's quiet manner, and excellent figure, incidentally; the Betty Gross' profile; Rhoda Timmons' lovely smile; the vitality of Peggy Paxton; and Marjorie Vollmer's shapely feet.

Although probably getting on the wrong side of their respective girl-friends, no hero would be an all-round good egg without:

Bob Notley's ability to make friends; the super build of Francis Bamberg; the stick-to-it-iveness of Morris Cohen; Wally Grigg's good humor at all times; that wavy hair of Paul Wolfe's; Wilbur Kamrath's wide grin; and Thum Meyer's unusual voice—I still say he is an exact double for cinemameany Lloyd Nolan.

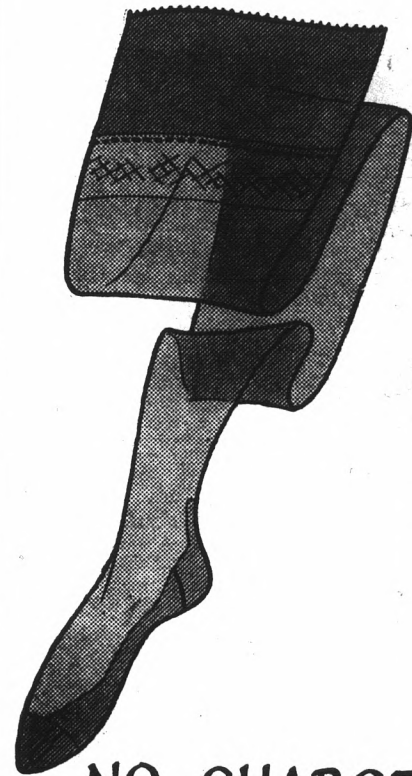

And since every hero should have a bit of the villain in him, add a great big dose of Virgil Stevens' talent for acting like a likeable scoundrel. And that's really a compliment.

organization has not yet been drawn up, according to Miss Lella Watson, club adviser.

Since the time Kenny Washington blew in with his Bruin bruisers, the locals have ached (in more ways than one) for a rematch. This time they have Leo Cantor to reckon with. He ranks near Washington with the Southern branch coaches.

Anything can happen tonight. Especially if Ed Becker retains his recent appointment in the backfield. The boys say he's as hard to stop as a runaway truck.

It'll be fun to see what Donn Hart and company will have to offer in the way of flashlights tonight. The build-up is o. k. and the committee deserves much credit for keeping the fans awake last week.

We were sorry to learn of Bill Joseph's ineligibility due to a recent transfer mixup. However, if he remains here for a year, he can play in conference competition.

Through the courtesy of a downtown clothing store, a contest is being sponsored whereby votes are cast for the week's outstanding football player. The winner of each week receives a clothing order for his play.

Uptown Boosters Contribute Funds For Student Loans

By WILBUR KAMRATH

Though every student participating in either the flashlight or rooting section at football games may be proud in doing his duty, there is still one group of civic boosters which is doing as much or more than the students themselves for the betterment of Santa Ana jaysee.

Organized last May, this group of jaysee boosters is known as the Downtown Quarterbacks club. Main purpose of the club is to raise funds for the Emergency Loan Fund for needy students. This purpose was achieved this year by the sale of $2 per year tickets which entitle members to sit in the special section of reserved seats between the 30 yard lines immediately behind the jaysee rooting section. Membership tickets do not, however, include admission to the games.

Mr. Hay, who inaugurated the idea of organizing the club, stated that nearly every prominent man in town is a member of the Quarterbacks.

Officers of the organization are Mr. Hay, proprietor of the Salad Bowl, president; Joe Harless, local banker, treasurer; and Vic Walker, sporting goods dealer, secretary.

Flashlight Section To Perform Tonight

Santa Ana's flashlight section will function tonight when over 150 students will present the unusual spectacle between halves of the U. C. L. A. Frosh, Santa Ana football game at the Municipal bowl.

Inaugurated last year for the first time in the history of the college, the flashlight section has received national publicity. Donn Hart, chairman of the committee said today.

The section performed last week for the first time under the direction of Don Rader and Les Meyers, who are acting as field directors this year.

Students Give New York Yankees Edge Over Chicago In Series

Autumn's perennial question—Who's going to win the World Series? found answer this time in the replies of several Junior college students. Opinion generally favors the Yankees in five or six games but rabid Cub fans claim Gabby Hartnett should lead his team to victory in less than seven games.

Personal opinions include:

DEL TAYLOR—The Yankees will win.

CY LIEVERMANN — Personally, I like the Cubs, but the Yanks are too tough.

DANNY FRIAS—I hope the Yanks win.

LARRY TIMKEN—Yanks, in four or five games; too much power.

CHARLIE ROSS—Cubs, in four games.

"YANKS TOUGH"

CHARLES PERRUNG—Those Yanks again!

JOHN NEWCOM—Murderer's row gets my money.

J. D. COBB—I hope the Cubs can do it.

PHIL HAY (of the Salad Bowl)—You can't beat power with brains, I take the Yanks.

GEORGE OSTERMAN—New

York looks like a cinch.
GIL NEHRIG—Yankees will win, in five games.

CUBS FAVORED

BOB CLARK—The Cubs in six.
DEL HOLAN—I have a hunch the Cubs will win, O'! Diz looks good.

FRED SHAW—I hope the Cubs come through.

KENNY LAYTON—The Yanks in five.

VERNON CARNEY—The Cubs lose the first, win four more in a row.

BYRON QUIVEY—The Yanks, in five or six games.

What do you think?

Dons Hosts To UCLA Frosh; League Opens Next Friday

Locals Battle Owls In League Opener

Santa Ana's Dons journey to Azusa next Friday for their first tussle on the 1938 conference schedule. From a pre-conference standpoint Santa Ana, San Bernardino, and Riverside loom as principal contenders for the championship, with Chaffey and Fullerton as strong possibilities.

Citrus Junior College will be fighting to stop the Dons next Friday night when the two teams tangle in the latter's first appearance in 1938 conference competition. Until now, the touchdowns scored by the local team have come after short spurts of strength. The passing of one more week will probably see a more smoothly working machine.

SAN BERDOO vs. POMONA

In another conference game on Friday, October 14, San Bernardino's powerful aggregation meets Pomona. At present Berdoo seems to be the most highly developed team in the conference. Their passing attack was one of Pasadena's big troubles although the Bulldogs won 39-26. The Indian running attack is clicking equally as well.

RIVERSIDE vs. FULLERTON

Riverside and Fullerton Junior Colleges clash in the third conference game scheduled for October 14. After this game the dark horse of the conference, Riverside, may not appear so dark. The team is one of the best developed at the inland city in several years, and will no doubt prove to be the biggest stumbling block for Coach Bill Cook's Dons. The Bengals turned back Los Angeles City College 21-7, while Santa Ana barely eked out a 6-0 victory. Fullerton's eleven is largely composed of new boys who have instilled a new spirit into the team.

DON OF THE WEEK

CENTER JACK LENTZ won the first award of the Don-of-the-Week contest sponsored by a clothing store. His play was voted most outstanding in last week's game.

Football Popularity Contest Under Way

Jack Lentz, center on jaysee's '38 grid machine, was announced this week as the winner of Vanderma's "Don of the Week" popularity contest. He will receive a merchandise order from the local clothing store.

The prize will be offered each week to the jaysee football player who receives the most votes for his play during the preceding week. The honor won by Lentz was for his outstanding performance in the Los Angeles game last Friday.

Those desiring to vote for a player in tonight's game should leave their ballot at the Vanderma's store, 222 West Fourth street, before next Wednesday, according to Carl Stein, manager of the local establishment.

Bruin Frosh Play Santa Ana Tonight

Paced by Leo Cantor, the brightest Bruin prospect since famed Kenny Washington flashed here two years ago, Coach Norm Duncan and his UCLA freshmen invade the Municipal bowl tonight at 8 o'clock to battle jaysee's gold-panted eleven.

Cantor and his cohorts return to settle an old score, the 26-19 setback handed the Cubs here two years ago. Advance information indicates that the current Westwood frosh look equally as strong as the 1936 edition.

Coach Bill Cook's Dons should be at full strength for the first time this season. With Co-captain Johnnie Joseph back in suit after three weeks, layoff, favoring an injured shoulder, the locals can field a lineup that should work better than any yet this season. Other injured players who have returned to suit and will be ready for the Bruin babes include Tackles Virgil Stevens and Tom Anderson, Halfbacks Jerry Nesmith and Billy Joseph, and Bill Wilson and Sam Henderson, who fit in at quarter and full.

BRUINS BEATEN TWICE
The Bruin yearlings have yet to score a win this season. Chaffey upset them 7-0 on a blocked kick, although the Bruins threatened several times. And last Saturday the Berkeley Bear frosh tripped the southern branch squad 14-6, intercepting a pair of long passes to set up scoring marches.

Important cogs in the Bruin machine are, besides Cantor, Tackles Bill Milligan and Chuck Fears; and Fullback Johnnie Wynne. Cantor, younger brother of Izzy of Bruin varsity fame, won all Southern-Cal recognition last year at Fremont. His runs averaged better than 5 yards a-piece against the Berkeley squad. In addition to this, his kicks averaged 42 yards, and two went well over 50.

Milligan is a Santa Ana boy who moved to Westwood from Kiski prep school in Pennsylvania, and is rated as a "find" by Coach Duncan. While at Santa Ana, Milligan was a bulwark for the Saint eleven in high school. Fears and Wynne played on the championship Manual Arts squads of '36 and '37.

"DON of the Week"

Use tonite's line-up as a ballot to vote for the best Santa Ana player in tonite's game. Put a circle around the name of the man in your opinion was the most outstanding.

The player securing the largest vote will be named "DON OF THE WEEK" and be given a Vanderma's gift or merchandise order. This shall be repeated each week during the entire football season. Deposit your vote before Wednesday, October 12th in the ballot boxes at Vanderma's.

No More Jeering

Students jeered when an outside band played at jaysee games last year.

There's no occasion for jeering any more.

Santa Ana jaysee has its own band now. It is the first band in the history of the college.

One man is responsible for the change. He is music instructor Alan A. Revill, who tirelessly puts 27 band members through their paces twice each week.

After diligent practice they trek to the Municipal bowl where they practice some more.

There's no salary for the jaysee band. Their pay is the applause of fellow students and the knowledge that they are a unifying force, between song leaders and students, and between students and the Don eleven.—M.M.

Is It Enthusiasm?

Something should be done about the cheering section at the football games. With the newly organized band to pep up the crowd, there should be enough enthusiasm and spirit in the rooters to give the team a little support.

The cheer leaders are willing to lead yells but they find themselves doing all the yelling. Cooperation is decidedly lacking between the crowd and leaders.

What if the team hasn't shown up as well as in other years? That's the time they need our cheers.

A little cooperation with the cheer leaders, who are working hard to get some noise from the mob, would make the yells 100 per cent better.

We can do it so let's get out there and support the team whether they are winning or losing.—R. L.

It's a Privilege

Class elections will be held next week. This means that the Associated Student officers are faced with the usual thing—a minority of class voting.

This election is for you. The officers elected will lead your class. Whether your favorite wins the office or not isn't the important thing. You have at least participated.

You are given the opportunity to vote. Why not consider it the privilege it is, and take advantage of it?—G. K.

In The Collegiate World

CO-EDS COULD CAUSE NATIONAL CATASTROPHE

In the September 26 issue of The American Observer there can be found an article entitled "Beauty, A Business." This article deals with the cosmetic industry in the world.

One cannot help but wonder after looking at the bright and shining faces of the co-eds what would happen if cosmetics were suddenly declared "taboo."

Five hundred thousand workers would be out of a job, 300 million dollars would be lost by the business, beauty shops would lose 200 million dollars on hair waves, shampoos, facials, and manicures.

Perhaps it's a good thing women do wear their make-up because it might become a fad and a national catastrophe.—Santa Rosa J. C. Oak Leaf.

ARE THESE REALLY COLLEGE STUDENTS

A recent investigation in a college classroom brought out these findings:

"James E. Watson is a prominent figure in naval affairs of the world.

"President Roosevelt has asked for 250 billion dollars for additional relief funds.

"Neville Chamberlain is a French minister.

"Lord Halifax is a city in Nova Scotia.

"Aliens can work on the PWA if they are American citizens.

"Anthony Eden resigned from the British cabinet to be succeeded by Neville Chamberlain."

In a world vibrant with current news, this is the information of college students.

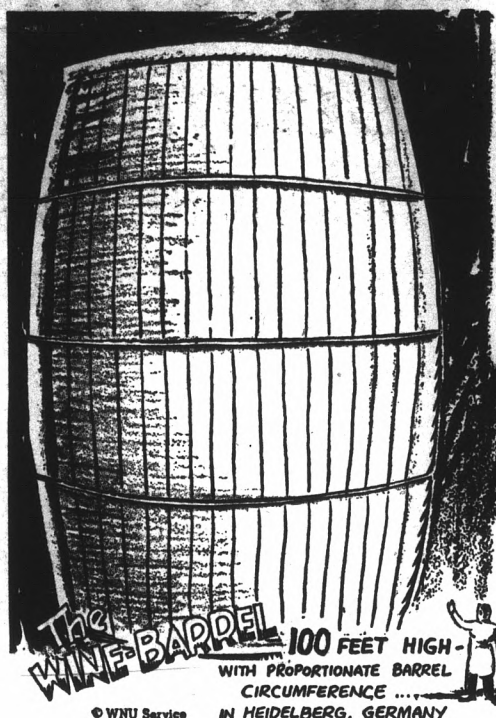

Keeping abreast with the times is a sign of at least initiative in absorbing knowledge of current history, history in the making. Perhaps history in the making is not exciting enough for college students; perhaps college students classify current affairs in the category of "oh, history, that's too dull."

In ancient days, students did not have the ways and means of earning the latest developments that meant a new nation or a new ruler or a new law. In ancient days, students gleaned what information they could about the world and its affairs by word of mouth and then they contacted information slowly. Today, news of importance is within reach of every person no matter how far removed he may be from the scene of the event.

College education implies not only the absorption of facts. It implies the capacity of being able to dig behind the surface of facts and reasoning conclusions.

The college student who allows himself to lag behind in knowledge of world affairs, in history in the making, in live history that is important because of the very fact that it is alive, is allowing his mind to become stagnant and valueless.—The Butler, University Collegian.

But It's True

Mr. Grillo gets most of his business from people headed for masquerade parties. But others ask him to paint in the eyes just to fool their friends. He also makes a business of fixing black eyes obtained in other places.

Mr. Carruthers made his house with all the bottles pointing inward. There are 6,000 altogether. The owner points out he'll never have to take out a mortgage. He'll just tear down part of the building and collect the deposit on the bottles.

Novel Signature Collection Revealed

McCOY SAVES AUTOGRAPHS

Autograph collecting is nothing new, but John H. McCoy, local journalism director, has accumulated an assortment of signatures few persons can equal.

Instead of the usual "very famous person" type of collection, Mr. McCoy possesses the signature of every student completing his course in journalism, dating back through 1931 when he taught at Manual Arts high school in Los Angeles.

HAS SEVERAL HUNDRED

Today, the accumulation which began with his first class of 16 totals several hundred, many signatures bringing to mind former students who have found success in the journalistic field.

Former students on the list include four working at the present time on the San Francisco Chronicle, one working on the Los Angeles Herald-Express, and numerous others.

"I always wait until the last meeting of the class before requesting autographs," Mr. McCoy explained, "so that I am certain that those signing have completed the course."

College Called 'O.K.' JAYSEE LIFE LIKED

"What do you think of junior college?"

This question was asked a number of freshmen here this week, with interesting and informative replies. All those questioned declared their liking for college life and work. Some cited the advantage over high school life, while others noted the advantages as a stairstep to a major college.

A few of the replies: Dale Mickelwaite: It's swell, aside from the homework.

Ralph Beckman: It's lots better than high school.

Cecelia Telef: I like it. Everyone is so friendly.

Evelyn Myracle: I think it is fun.

Chester Stearns: It is an improvement over high school.

Weldon Holtzman: I think it is beneficial to have two years before going on to college.

Marvin Jacobs: I particularly like the social attitude here.

History Is Traced

WRITING IS NEW

Citizens of the time of Ptolemy were lucky, for they did not have to worry about punctuation marks.

Since the Ptolemaic period (several hundred years before Christ) our modern system of punctuation has evolved by gradual steps, changing from a monotonous method wherein not even the words were separated, to the highly effective method of today.

DEVELOPMENT SLOW

Only by gradual process were words even divided within the line, this division serving merely to set apart phrases or involved groups of letters.

During the eighth century, the Romans used a few spacing and accent rules, for the convenience of taking a breath between ideas. The Romans also effected the paragraphs, being denoted by a horizontal stroke under the initial word in a group.

GREEKS HELPED

Not until the sixteenth century, however, did the system of punctuation take rapid strides. Alders Manutius, borrowing the Greek method of points and introducing new innovations of his own, was chiefly responsible for this growth.

We use the Manutius system today, although present-day usage has tended to change the meanings. The Greek question mark (?) has become our semicolon; and the colon (:) which was the first accepted punctuation mark, stood for the stop at the beginning of a sentence. Later, one of the dots was dropped, forming the present period. DOROTHY ADAMS

CARROLLING

By CARROLL RICHARDSON

Now to go into my song. Exactly one month of the college term completed, and what have we done?

"A lot," say you.

"Quite a bit," say you.

"Not much," say I.

There is one consolation: we have eight full months to make up for lost time—most of us will probably need it.

The hard-boiled, old-time evangelist had given strict orders to a meek, timid choir leader to follow his sermon on "prohibition" carefully, and as soon as he had finished, the meek one was to sing something appropriate.

"And," bellowed the reformer in conclusion, "we'll take all the liquor we can lay our hands on and dump it into the river!" He sat down abruptly.

Quick as a wink, the choir leader was on his feet. "We shall now sing," he said to the assembly, "Shall We Gather at the River?"

Personally I like . . . Marvin Jacob's (freshman; former SAHS stude) style on the tennis court . . . the quiet manner of Dick Hardy (ditto; up from Garden Grove high school) and Al Resnick (another ditto; formerly at SAHS) . . . the capability of Morris Cohen (semifreshman; attended here Feb.—June, last year) in anything he sets out to do. . . (p. s.: It usually gets done). . .

If it isn't one thing it's . . . Bill Coleman and Kenneth Sanger (freshmen from Texas) drawing in their own matchless way. . . Dorothy Dreblow and Beulah Cairns (both freshmen . . . or should it be freshmen?) together . . . Wally Grigg (freshman No. 139, or thereabouts) carrying his acting ability into the classroom, 'n everywhere else.

OFFICIAL BOND VOTE

A canvas of the official vote on the junior college bond issue Sept. 23, gives the following report by precincts:

| Precinct          | Yes  | No   |
|-------------------|------|------|
| No. 1 Edison      | 313  | 94   |
| No. 2 Franklin    | 138  | 90   |
| No. 3 Hoover      | 238  | 114  |
| No. 4 Jefferson   | 512  | 368  |
| No. 5 Lincoln     | 486  | 309  |
| No. 6 Lowell      | 362  | 204  |
| No. 7 McKinley    | 319  | 236  |
| No. 8 Muir        | 128  | 99   |
| No. 9 Roosevelt   | 461  | 320  |
| No. 10 Spurgeon   | 545  | 308  |
| No. 11 Wilson     | 465  | 247  |
| No. 12 Greenville | 24   | 14   |
| Total             | 4003 | 2408 |

(The bonds lost a two-third majority by 269 votes.)
